1. What are two or three of the most important qualities of an effective Board member and why?

2. The Enduris Board follows a results-oriented governance model. Outline your experience with forms of board governance.

3. Is there anything preventing you from attending four (4) one-day meetings per year and one three-day national conference once every three years (travel expenses are reimbursable)? Do you have the support of your Board for participation on the Enduris Board of Directors?

4. As a policy maker, the Board considers all groups (entity types) as one organization. During difficult decision times, could you consider the entire organization as a whole, even though the consideration may adversely affect your own organization?

5. Do you have any comments or questions for us?
